By Thomas Workman, Elq; who arrived here the 26th Inft. in a Flag of Trace from Martinico, we have the following melancholy Account of a moft dreadful Hurricane that happened there the 13th and 14th Instant: Mr. Workman arrived at Fort Royal on the 16th in the Evening, and was informed, that on the 13th Instant a violent Gale of Wind from W. N. W. came on, which increased till about Eleven o'Clock that Night; from that Time till Morning it blew a Hurricane, that all the Vessels at St. Pierres, and many others at Fort Royal, were driven on Shore, and utterly loft, among which were Twenty-five from different Ports in North-America: That by the Returns from the several Parishes, many Houses, and the chief Part of their Sugar Works, had been blown down; that to the Number of 800 Souls, White and Black, had perished; and that their Canes and Ground Provisions were entirely de-In Consequence of which, an Ordinance stroyed. In Consequence of which, an Ordinance was published, giving Liberty to English Vessels to import Bread and Flour, paying a Duty of only One per Cent to the French King, and other Provisions, agreeable to their former Ordinances.

St. CHRISTOPHER's, August 27.

Capt. White, from Dominica and Martinico, informs us, that on the 14th Instant, when we had the great Surf here, a terrible Hurricane happened at those Islands, which drove on Shore at the Bay of St. Pierre, in Martinico, 65 Vessels, 30 of which were English, likewise 90 Houses blown down, and the Number of Persons lost on this Occasion in supposed to amount to near 3000. At Fort Royal, in the same Island, every Vessel in the Carnash were drove on Shore, and all the Vesfels which lay in Dominico were drove to Sea, but we Rear of no other Damage being done there.
